Stiehm to Present Wiry, Fast Outfit Against Notre Dame

INDIANA ELEVEN REJUVENATED FOR GAME WITH IRISH

"No Man in the World Will Recognize Them," Says Jumbo Stiehm.

"No man in the world will be able to recognize the old Indiana team next Saturday merely by its past performances," said Coach Stiehm to a student pep meeting held in preparation for the game with Notre Dame Saturday. "We'll surprise you, and incidentally Notre Dame," he continued, "and you can bank on that: that no matter how formidable the Irish record may be, it can have only one effect on our Crimsons, that of making the fellows fight harder than ever."

The whole attitude of the state university toward the game is summed up in that statement. There is no fear over the outcome of the approaching struggle—strange as it may seem. While the general public has been predicting a easy victory for the Irish, the Indiana team has undergone a strengthening process that promises to make the game one of the most interesting in the state schedule. Stiehm's confidence has spread to the student body, and the whole school is wild over the prospects of victory. The games with Harvard and Minnesota have had a wholesome influence on the Hoosiers—they have been able to discover their weak spots and strengthen them accordingly. The new men have gained valuable experience that could not have been obtained had Indiana been playing weaker opponents this fall.

The Hoosier offensive will probably consist of a ripping attack off the guard positions. This was the basis of the offensive which proved so puzzling to the Rockers last year. Stiehm is one of the few western coaches who plans his plays against the opposing guards and he has had unusual success with them. As used by the Notre Dame freshmen against the regulars two nights ago, the formations were very effective. Harry Hooton, the freshman found the going rather rough against the varsity yesterday. The regulars stopped the yearlings in better fashion than they did in the scrimmage Tuesday. A forward pass defense which will be proof against anything Indiana may spring must still be perfected, however, for the freshmen passes were very successful yesterday. On several occasions the first year men advanced the ball considerably by means of the aerial route. If the Indiana team by using their more intricate formations should find the Irish defense easy to solve the results will be nothing short of disastrous. It is well known that Stiehm is devoting the entire week to forward pass work in an attempt to sweep the Irish off the field. Last year, the Hoosier passes accomplished this very thing. "Jumbo" developed a team so expert in throwing the ball that it was able to travel clear across the gridiron in signal practice in less than a minute. This fall he has men equally as speedy as the members of his former aggregation, and Notre Dame followers will not be surprised if the Crimsons launch a fierce overhead offensive in Saturday's game.

Speed, for that matter, is the whole basis of the Indiana team. This is the very factor which gives them a good chance to win the game. Heretofore the Rockers have been meeting heavy, powerful teams, none of them, however, which could compare to the Hoosiers in speed. The Irish have demonstrated their ability to stop the heavy fellows, but no one is able to foretell what they can do against a fast and wiry squad like that hailing from Bloomington. If Indiana should not display the speed which she is credited with having, Notre Dame should win easily. But on the other hand, if Stiehm's squad really has that speed the game of the season should result.

ANOTHER RULE.
NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Managers of boxers will not be allowed a "cut" of more than 33 1/3 per cent of their charges, according to a new ruling of the New York state boxing commission.

YALE LOSES END.
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 26.—Mike Eddy, one of Yale's star ends, was laid up Wednesday in the hospital with a twisted knee sustained in scrimmage. He may not be able to play again this season.

PROSPECTS BRIGHTEN.
PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 26.—With Laurie, Garrity, Salveto and Alford back in the lineup, the Tigers' prospects in the approaching hard games are much better. Coach Roper is trying to overcome the weakness at ends and is using Rutgan and Salveto on the flanks.

GOOD WORK.
A successful tour has just been completed by Tilden, Mrs. Mollie Bjurstedt, Mallory, Miss Eleanor Goss, Washburn and others prominent in tennis championship matches. The object was to aid the American Committee for Devastated France and several thousand dollars were raised for that cause.

It was a noble thing for these stars to give all their time to this cause after they had just finished one of the most strenuous seasons this country has ever seen. And more than noble for them to fill the hole that was left when Suzanne Lenglen found herself unable to go through with her schedule.

The willingness of her opponents to take up her work demonstrates the stuff that our champions are made of.

Demonstration At Indianapolis To Feature Game

Bloomington Scholars Planning Many Parades to Show School Spirit.

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE!
A block of tickets for the Indiana game Saturday has been sent to Hull and Calmon's cigar store by the S. A. C., of Notre Dame. The tickets will be on sale at 50c each. The trains will leave at 7:50 Saturday morning and will arrive in Indianapolis about noon. The trains will leave for South Bend on midnight of the same day.

For the benefit of those who decide at the last minute to attend, a special agent of the S. A. C., will be stationed in the lobby of the Oliver hotel on Friday night, from 7 to 10 o'clock.

The Indiana student body is wild over the prospects of victory at Indianapolis Saturday. That is the word which has come from Bloomington recently. Interest at the state school is greater than it has ever been. Two thousand enthusiastic crims supporters have already decided their attendance at the game and a sixty piece band will accompany the crowd. It is expected that by tonight at least 500 more will purchase railroad tickets to Indianapolis and admission to Washington park.

Pep meetings are being held daily. A committee has provided all who intend to make the trip with whistles, megaphones and pennants. The Hoosiers are determined that their cheering will drown that of the Rockers on Saturday. They have been told that the defeat of last year was due partly at least to the lack of support from the Indiana stands, and measures are being taken to prevent a repetition of this. A big procession will be held from the station to the park, where the crowd will dance around the gridiron.

At the same time another big parade will be headed from the business district to the park, led also by a band, and accompanied by large floats. It will be the Notre Dame procession, the first that has been held in the Hoosier metropolis in two years. At least a thousand men are expected to participate in it. That is the number which will leave South Bend Saturday morning at 7:50. Members of the S. A. C., of Notre Dame who have been making all arrangements for the journey claim that tickets have been selling fairly rapidly, and that the affair promises to be highly successful.

BYERS AND DAWSON TO PLAY SATURDAY

Arrangements Made for Big Pool Match Between Stellar Professionals.

Skill and perfect judgment in the handling of the cue marked the exhibition of difficult and tricky shots shown at the Billiard Parlors of Mr. Geo. M. Platner, by Mr. Clayton Byers yesterday. In many instances shots were made that, to all appearances, were in the class of the impossible, yet by an almost unbelievable understanding of the spheres they were made to do Byers' will.

After the exhibition of these tricks, a game of 75 points was arranged between Byers and Weaver, a local player. In this game Byers won with an unbroken run of 50, defeated the local boy by a wide margin.

Byers later played Chet Sanders, also a local player.

Clayton Byers, who made a great impression with the local pool fans during his exhibition at the Platner Parlor yesterday afternoon has accepted the challenge of Cowboy Jack Dawson, the travelling professional, and has already placed his forfeit in the hands of a stakeholder. Dawson set up his forfeit last night.

Both cue artists have brought high reputations into this city with them and have taken on some of the best ivory pocketers in this county, defeating all of them by large scores. Byers had an unfinished run of 50 in his first match yesterday afternoon.

The match will probably be staged at the Greenland parlors. Byers said last night and arrangements are being made to get the opponents started by Saturday. The match will be a three day affair with the goal set at 450 points for a side bet of $100. Dawson specializes in the game of 50 no count, while Byers is a straight pool performer.

GLOOM DISPERSES AS FOUR CRIMSON PLAYERS RECOVER

Hanny, Donovan, Cox and Thomas Will Be Ready to Enter Fray Saturday.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 25.—Gloom that settled thick over the Indiana university football camps following the defeat at the hands of Minnesota Saturday, 6 to 0, was lifting rapidly with the return of the Crimsons supporters from Minneapolis. Notwithstanding the fact that the Crimsons lineup contained the names of four substitute players, Indiana fought Minnesota to a standstill, gained 170 yards in the fourth quarter, hammered three times at the Minnesota defense within the Gophers' 15-yard line, and was within a few yards of the Gopher goal when the final whistle sounded.

With Hanny, Donovan, Cox and Thomas back in the lineup, a different story will be told here next Saturday when the Crimsons meet Notre Dame in "The Hoosier Gridiron Classic."

Alumni here moved today to call to Indianapolis alumni of the state university from all parts of the middle west for the "I" Men's Fight. Next Friday evening. Discouragement has been replaced by the famed "Indiana Fighting mood" which has accomplished wonders for Crimsons football teams in the past. It was pointed out that this same fighting spirit served to defeat Purdue in 1917 when Indiana was not accorded a fighting chance to win, to defeat Syracuse in 1919 when that team had defeated the best in the east, and enabled Indiana to fight Notre Dame here last year to a 13 to 0 score when the Irish were touted to be at least 30 points superior to the Crimsons.

The following telegram was being sent to all parts of the country today by Indianapolis alumni:

"Indiana needs you! Your presence here next Friday and Saturday will do for your football team what it did at Bloomington in 1917 when that team defeated the Irish 13 to 0, and Indiana's last year. Come, help us fight!"

Crimson alumni forces will be mustered at the Claypool hotel on Friday evening, where the Indiana squad will be guests of the alumni at the "fight fest."

The advance sale of seats for the contest continues to break all past records for the annual Indianapolis game.

PHIL O'DOWD GETS VERDICT OVER JOE

Former Bantamweight Champ Lynch Falls in Slashing Twelve Rounds.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Phil O'Dowd, Columbus, O., tonight was awarded the judge's decision after a slashing 12 round bout with Joe Lynch, former bantamweight champion.

It was Lynch's first fight since his defeat by Pete Herman in Brooklyn last summer. O'Dowd, who was making his first pugilistic appearance in New York, displayed a cleverness that Lynch was unable to fathom.

O'Dowd used his left to advantage throughout the contest and won eight of the 12 rounds. Lynch had the better of two of the rounds and honors were even in two. The fighting was fast throughout.

Lynch pushed O'Dowd to the floor in the fifth round after an exchange of body blows. O'Dowd took the count of nine and then came back at Lynch so furiously that he had him groggy at the bell. In the sixth round O'Dowd had Lynch near a knockout after two hard right to the jaw, Lynch staggering to his corner when the bell rang.

In the last three rounds Lynch tried to stage a comeback but O'Dowd jabbed him at will and prevented any rally. O'Dowd weighed in at 118 3/4 pounds and Lynch at 122.

Lynch had hoped to defeat O'Dowd so as to get another chance at the bantamweight championship now held by Johnny Buff of Jersey City.

READY FOR BATTLE.
NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Penn State and Georgia Tech are expected to arrive here Friday morning for their game Saturday. Both eleven will practice Friday afternoon on the Polo Grounds. Penn State will pitch camp at Garden City and the southerners will stay at the Majestic hotel.

HAS THE IRISH BACKFIELD GONE STALE?
Advance notices on the Nebraska-Notre Dame tilt gave Rockne's fighting Irish the edge in the battle because of his marvelous backfield. "If the Rocker backfield can break through the Nebraska line, Notre Dame will win," was the prediction on all sides.

Notre Dame won but it wasn't from the big gains made by the backfield. A marvelous line, instead of a marvelous backfield, tore to shreds the hopes of the Cornhuskers when they broke up every attempted defense of the visitors.

Has the Irish backfield gone stale? Their exhibition last Saturday seemed pitiful alongside of their great work against Kalamazoo, Depauw and Iowa. Time and again they failed at the critical moment. It doesn't seem probable that Rockne would deliberately hold his backfield stars from attempting big gains. It is more than likely that the battle against the Cornhuskers was too greatly advertised as a tough one and the Irish offense couldn't realize it when they found things so easy.

Against Indiana Saturday that backfield will prove that it has not gone stale and that it is still the great ground gainer that has helped make the big Notre Dame record. Against the Army it will exhibit even greater skill, and at the Polo Grounds before over 40,000 Irish admirers it will literally run wild over Rutgers.

Jones is an awful common name but it labels some great people. Take Tad Jones for instance.

hi—ho—hum
That just goes to prove that the guy you're knocking can often knock 'em himself. The only exceptions to the rule seem to be Johnny Wilson and Fred Fulton.

hi—ho—hum
Fred Fulton has fallen into the habit of laying on the floor so often that he dislikes have a bed in his house.

hi—ho—hum
Press agents say Fulton is the logical man to fight Dempsey. Yes!!! And the boxing commissioners want to warn Jack not to hold "Burr" when he's in the ring, or Freddy will probably fall into a faint. Wills tickled his ribs and he laid down on the softest piece of canvas in New Jersey and stuck there until the meal bell rang.

hi—ho—hum
If Fred Fulton is a championship contender then Buck Hennes will be the next mayor of Notre Dame.

K. OF C. ACTIVITY IN SPORTSDOM TO REACH HIGH LEVEL

Bowling and Basketball Playing Gains Momentum in Middle West.

The 1921-22 season will witness an activity in indoor sports unprecedented in the history of the Knight of Columbus. Supreme Secretary William J. McGinley announced today. Bowling ranks first as most popular in the indoor sports conducted by K. of C. councils. There are approximately 500 K. of C. star bowling organizations in the country, including multiple-league leagues in New York, Chicago and other large cities. The game is especially popular among the mid-west knights. Basketball ranks next, while amateur boxing and wrestling are gaining increased favor as features of athletic endeavor by the younger K. of C. members. Many athletic teams are being formed in the 130 K. of C. evening schools.

Pacific Fleet Champion After Bout With Welsh
The welterweight champion of the Pacific fleet is planning on an invasion of South Bend. Under the management of Nate Farb he landed in Indianapolis a short time ago resolved to start a cleanup on every welter swinging the mits around the bend of the St. Joe river.

The kids name is Bobbie Lee; speedy and a bear for punishment, he fought every well known ship batter on the great Pacific and knocked them out with much regularity. He is after a fight with Eddie Welsh the local 148 pounder and is willing to swap punches with him any time or place that it can be arranged.

HIGH SCHOOLERS TO MEET TOUGH MATCH IN HAMMOND TEAM

Burnham Forced to Make Many Shifts for Saturday's Game.

With only tonight's scrimmage and the customary light signal practice for Friday remaining Coach Burnham put the Orange and Blue squad through an exceptionally hard practice at top speed last night on Leeper gridiron. The mentor promises another of the same kind tonight and will send his varsity squad against Capt. Smith's Senior interclass eleven. This will be a fitting test as Capt. Smith's eleven is as good as the average high school team. Hopes for a victory over the Hammond aggregation on their own gridiron are not running very high and reasons are in the personnel of one Johnny (Ike) Voedisch and George Strickler, veteran stars on this year's football eleven.

Ike Voedisch disregarded instructions from his doctor to stay in bed last week and play in the Jefferson clash and is now confined to his home. His condition is in no way serious and the star tackle will be in the regular lineup at his old place when the starting whistle blows at the Rensselaer clash here one week from next Saturday.

Strickler's loss to the squad cannot be estimated until action starts Saturday with the husky Hammondites and Johnny Nykes is put under fire on a foreign gridiron in Strickler's place. It will be a fitting test for Johnny to show his ability.

Strauss was assigned to Voedisch's left tackle position and is functioning in much the same manner as did Voedisch. Strauss is handicapped by not having the beef that Voedisch has but is doing to give a good account of himself despite this. He will also do the punting. Finley was given a chance at Strauss' former guard job but is not generally expected to show up well because of an injured knee received in one of the first practices of the season.

Edwards was given an opportunity to show his wares at left halfback because of absence of Matt Butch. Although much younger than his brother "Ollie" he exhibited traces of speed that match up with that of the famous member of the Edwards family.

The extensive playland region of Paines in Central Asia is known as the roof of the world.
